PRESS RELEASE

X-Men invade North Shore Park

Miami Beach, FL – On Friday, September 8, 2006 North Shore Park hosted its 5th Movie in the Park attracting over 600 Miami Beach residents. Children and adults of all ages came together to enjoy the X-MEN themed event filled with food, music, and entertainment. Complimentary bags of popcorn were also available for everyone as they viewed the featured presentation X-MEN – The Last Stand.

The highlight of the evening was when X-MEN characters, Wolverine and Storm, arrived to meet and greet the crowd. The children had the opportunity to take pictures with the super heroes, and enjoy the various play areas located through out the field. As one parent said, "It's not everyday that we can watch a movie in an open field underneath the stars. The city has done a great job in organizing events bringing families and the community together."

North Shore Park's Teen Club added to the evening as over 55 members volunteered in food sales, litter control, and patrolling the area. In addition, they raised $244.00 through ice cream sales and the Dunk Tank with all proceeds going towards cultural activities that the children will be participating in through out the year.
